INTRODUCTION.

Wethersfield was settled in October, 1635, by a colony from Watertown, Massachusetts. The colonists were accompanied, or soon after joined, by two English clergymen, Rev. Henry Smith and Rev. Richard Denton. Both, it is probable, supplied the place of a minister until the spring of 1638 or '9, when they were succeeded by the Rev. Peter Prudden. It was not the intention of Mr. Prudden to make Wethersfield his permanent residence, but a place of temporary sojourn, until he and his friends could select a suitable spot for a plantation. Meanwhile, he supplied the pulpit of Wethersfield, and probably remained in the town until the time of his installation as pastor at Milford, April 18th, 1640.

Several of the inhabitants of Wethersfield became so warmly attached to Mr. Prudden, that they followed him to Milford and were among the first and principal settlers of that town. During the succeeding autumn, a still greater draft was made upon the strength and numbers of the people, by the removal of many, in consequence of a long standing controversy, which could not be otherwise amicably adjusted. They purchased and settled the town now called Stamford. Early in the spring of 1641, Rev. Mr. Smith, the first preacher in this place, resumed his ministrations among the people, and was installed pastor of the church, which was at that time legally organized. The number of members which it embodied is unknown, as no church record of that date exists. Among them were Joseph Sherman, Joseph Strickland, Robert Coe, Robert Reynolds and James Weed, who had been regularly dismissed from the church at Watertown. Soon after the settlement of Mr. Smith, a bitter controversy arose between the people and their pastor, which was prosecuted with unabated zeal, until in 1648 his weary body found its rest in the grave, and his vexed spirit in heaven. How long after his decease the church remained destitute of a pastor, can not now be ascertained—probably not more than two years. Mr. Smith was succeeded by the Rev. John Russell. Of his ministry, little is known. The latter part of it, however, like that of his predecessor, was a period of dissension, which resulted in the spring of 1659, in the removal of Mr. Russell, followed by all the members of his church except six, to Massachusetts, where they commenced the settlement of the town of Hadley.

From that date, through a period of eight years, the church was destitute of a settled pastor, enjoying only the temporary ministrations of Rev. John Cotton, Jr., Rev. Joseph Haynes, Rev. Thomas Buckingham and Rev. Jonathan Willoughby.

In 1667, Rev. Gershom Bulkley was invited "to come and be helpful to the people of Wethersfield in the Gospel ministry." To this Mr. Bulkley consented, on condition that a colleague pastor should be associated with him. The town complied with his request, and Mr. Bulkley, with Rev. Samuel Stone, was installed pastor of this church during the autumn of that year. The united ministry of Messrs. Bulkley and Stone continued until the 9th of June, 1669, when Mr. Stone was dismissed. Although Mr. Bulkley was in the pastoral office about ten years, nothing is known of the history of the church during his ministry. It does not appear, however, that anything occurred to interrupt its harmony, or hinder its prosperity. Mr. Bulkley was dismissed, at his own request, in the early part of 1677. He was succeeded in the same year by Rev. Joseph Rowlandson, who tarried not long. His Master bade him "come up higher," in November, 1678.

Rev. John Woodbridge was installed pastor in 1679, and resigned his ministry with his life, in 1691.

Rev. Stephen Mix succeeded Mr. Woodbridge in 1694. His account of a long ministry of forty-four years was sealed up, August 28th, 1738. The earliest known records of the church, are in the hand-writing of Mr. Mix, and consist merely of memoranda of baptisms.

Rev. James Lockwood was ordained his successor, February 28th, 1739, just prior to the memorable revival of 1740, which highly blessed New England. During the ministry of Mr. Lockwood, the celebrated Whitefield made his first and second visits to New England. The people of Wethersfield were favored with his instructions and felt their power. This was probably the first revival with which this ancient church was visited. The number of converts is said to have been large. But the only record of their number and names is in "the Lamb's Book of Life." Mr. Lockwood closed his labors and entered into rest in 1772, aged fifty-nine, having served his Divine Master thirty-three years in the ministry.

Rev. John Marsh, D. D., was ordained pastor, January 12, 1774; died September 13, 1821, in the seventy-ninth year of his age and the forty-eighth of his ministry.

Rev. Caleb J. Tenney, D. D., was installed March 27, 1816; dismissed January 12, 1841.

Rev. Charles J. Warren was installed July 1, 1835; dismissed February 1, 1837.

Rev. Robert Southgate was installed February 7, 1838; dismissed November 22, 1843.

Rev. Mark Tucker, D. D., was installed October 15, 1845.

CHURCH NOTICES.

The seasons of Sacramental Communion occur only on the first Lord's day in the months of January, March, May, July, September and November.

A Lecture preparatory to the solemnity, is attended in the vestry, on Friday afternoon, next preceding each sacramental occasion.

A regular lecture is preached on every Wednesday evening.

QUESTIONS FOR EACH ONE TO PROPOSE TO HIMSELF IN THE CLOSET.

1. Do you appropriate some time and place to secret prayer?
2. Do you pray in your family?
3. Do you regularly attend the ordinances of public worship?
4. Do you read the Bible prayerfully?
5. Have you a lively hope of salvation?
6. Are you meek, patient, forgiving, and strictly upright?
7. Do you attend meetings for prayer?
8. Do you converse with sinners on the subject of religion, with a view to do them good?
9. Do you earnestly desire, and use the means best calculated to promote a revival of religion?

N. B. Let these be read every Saturday night.

CONFESSION OF FAITH, &c.

The Confession of Faith and Covenant, under which the First Church in Wethersfield is organized.

You believe there is one* self-existent,† independent‡ and eternal§ God; who possesses infinite perfection, excellency and glory;‖ who is the Creator,¶ Preserver, and Governor of the universe.††

* Deut. 6: 4; Isaiah 45: 22; Mark 12: 32. † Exodus 3: 14. ‡ Dan. 4: 35; Eph. 1: 11; Phil. 2: 13. § Psalm 90: 2; Heb. 1: 12. ‖ Job. 11: 7, 8, 9; James 1: 17; Col. 2; 3. ¶ Heb. 1: 10 and 3; 4, and 11: 3; Gen. 1: 1; Rev. 4: 11.  Heb. 1: 3. †† Psalm 83; 18, and 103; 19.

You believe there are three distinct persons in the Godhead,* the Father,† the Son,‡ and the Holy Ghost;§ and that these three are one God, the same in substance,‖ equal in power and glory.¶

* Matt. 28: 19; 2 Cor. 13: 14; 1 John 5: 7. † Matt. 7: 21 and 11: 27. ‡ Luke 24; 52; John 1: 1; Heb. 1: 6. § Matt. 3: 16; John 14; 16, 17, 26; Acts 5; 3, 4. ‖ John 10: 30. ¶ Phil. 2: 6, 10, 11.

You believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the word of God;* and the only infallible rule of faith and practice.†

* 2 Tim. 3; 16; 2 Peter 1: 21. † Isaiah 8: 20; Luke 16: 29; Mark 7; 7, 8, 13; John 20: 31; Acts 17: 11; Gal. 1: 8, 9; Rev 22: 18, 19.

You believe mankind were originally created in a state of holines,* but have since fallen into a state of sin,† and are in consequence exposed to the wrath and curse of God, both in this life and that which is to come.‡

* Gen. 1: 27; Eccl. 7: 29. † Gen. 2: 17 and 3: 6; Rom. 5: 18, 19 and 3: 10, 23 and 5: 12. ‡ Matt. 25: 41; Rom. 6: 23; Gal. 3: 10; Eph. 5: 6.

You believe that God, who is rich in mercy, has not left all mankind to perish in that estate of sin and misery; but from before the foundation of the world, has chosen some to everlasting life,* and ordained to bring them into a state of grace and salvation by a Redeemer.†

* Jer. 31: 3; Acts 13: 48; Rom. 11: 7; John 3; 16; Exod. 34; 6, 7; 2 Peter 3: 9. † Rom. 8; 29, 30; Eph. 1: 4—14; 2 Thess. 2: 13; Rev. 17: 14; 1 Peter 2: 9.

You believe that the Lord Jesus Christ, who is both God and man in two distinct natures, and one person, is the only Redeemer;* that he hath offered up himself a sacrifice to God: and by his obedience and sufferings and death has made ample atonement for sin in our stead;† that he is now exalted at God's right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, to grant repentance and remission of sins, to all who go unto God through him.‡

* 1 Tim. 2: 5: Acts 4: 12. † Heb. 7: 27 and 9: 12, 14, 22; 1 Peter 1: 18, 19; Heb. 2: 10; Isaiah 53: 4, 5, 6; Rom. 5: 6; 2 Cor. 5: 21; Gal. 3: 13; Eph. 5: 2; Heb. 10: 5, 10. ‡ Rom. 3: 25, 26 and 4: 5.

You believe in the doctrines of Regeneration,* Repentance† and Faith,‡ and that if ever we are saved, it will be owing to the free, rich and sovereign grace of God in Christ Jesus.§

* John 3: 3 and 1: 13. † Acts 2: 38 and 3: 19 and 11: 18; Luke 13: 3. ‡ Mark 16: 16; Acts 16: 31; John 3: 18, 36. § Acts 4: 12; 1 Cor. 3: 11.

You believe in the final perseverance of the saints;* in the resurrection of the dead;† and in a future judgment.‡

* Job. 17: 9; John 10: 27—29; Phil. 1: 6; Col. 3: 3; Heb. 10: 39. † Dan. 12: 2; Job 19: 26; Hosea 13: 14; 1 Cor. 15: 20—22; Rev. 20: 12. ‡ Matt. 25: 31, 32; Rom. 2: 5—11; 2 Tim. 4: 1; 2 Cor. 5: 10.

You believe at the last day the Lord Jesus will descend from heaven, with a shout, and with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God, and will summon the whole human race to appear before him, to give an account of their conduct; and will then doom the wicked to everlasting destruction, and crown the righteous with immortal glory.*

* Matt. 26: 64 and 16: 27 and 25: 13—33 and 25: 34, 41, 46; John 5: 28, 29; Rom. 14: 10, 12; Acts 10: 42; Heb. 9: 28.

You believe that Christ has a church in the world, into which none in the sight of men but visible believers, have a right to enter.*

* Psalm 50: 16; Matt. 16: 19 and 18: 17; 1 Cor. 1: 2; 2 Cor. 1: 1 and 6: 14—18.

You believe that the sacraments of the New Testament are Baptism* and the Lord's Supper;† that believers in regular standing only, can consistently partake of the Lord's Supper; and that visible believers and their households only, can consistently be admitted to the ordinance of Baptism.‡

* Matt. 28: 19; 1 Peter 3: 21. † Matt. 26: 26—30. ‡ Luke 18: 15, 16; Acts 2: 29 and 16: 33, 34; 1 Cor. 1: 16; Gal. 3: 27—29.

THE COVENANT

OF THE FIRST CHURCH IN WETHERSFIELD.

You, who present yourself in this public manner, are now with all your heart and with all your soul, to enter into solemn covenant with God and this church:

Admiring the infinite condescension and grace of God in opening a door of life and salvation for perishing sinners, through the mediation and death of Jesus Christ, together with a sense of your own great unworthiness; you do now make choice of the living God for your God; of God, the Father, for your Father; of the Lord Jesus Christ, his only begotten Son, for your Lord and Saviour; of the Holy Ghost for your Sanctifier and Comforter, and of the word of God for the rule of your life and practice.

And you do dedicate and give up yourself to God, to be only his; to be guided by his Spirit; to be ruled by his laws; to be disposed of by his providence, and to be eternally saved in the Gospel way; promising by the help of Christ, (without which you can do nothing,) that you will live soberly, righteously, and godly, all your days.

You do, likewise, covenant and bind yourself to walk with this church of Christ, in all the ways of God's ordinances, submitting to the discipline and government of this church, according to the rules of the gospel.

Thus you give up yourself to God and promise to live to Him, and to walk in holy fellowship with this church.

STANDING RULES

ADOPTED BY THIS CHURCH.

Voted, That all persons who apply to be received into communion with this church, shall in addition to the adopting of the covenant of the church, assent to the following, viz.

That we will not use intoxicating liquors nor traffic in them as a beverage; that we will not provide them as an article of entertainment, or for persons in our employment, and that in all suitable ways we will discountenance their use throughout the community.

December 29, 1844. Voted, That whenever members of the church leave the place, they be required to take a letter of recommendation or dismissal, within one year after so donig.

Voted, That no letter of recommendation shall be considered as good for a longer period than one year; and that this vote be incorporated in every letter of recommendation.

January 10, 1848. Voted, That no person who shall make application for admission into this church upon a letter of recommendation from any other evangelical church, shall be admitted upon the first hearing of such letter, but shall stand as an applicant until after a second hearing of such letter, before being received into the church.

January 8, 1849. That in all cases of discipline requiring the action of the church, it shall be the duty of the standing committee to investigate the charges, facts and testimony relating thereto, and report the same in such form and manner, that the church can have the whole subject before them and be prepared for immediate action in the premises.

February 9, 1852. Voted, That when any member of this church shall withdraw and divide himself from the communion of the church, or shall neglect the services and ordinances of the sanctuary, and when all due means of reclaiming and restoring him prove ineffectual, the church may by a major vote at any regular meeting, justly esteem and declare itself discharged and absolved from any further inspection over him.
